ENDORISING THE PRINCIPLE OF DOCUMENTARY SIMPLIFICATION AND REDUCTION FOR CARGOES AND VESSELS IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE

WHEREAS, it is generally recognized that vessels engaged in the water transport of foreign commerce are required, when entering and leaving ports, to prepare many documents for governmental purposes;

WHEREAS, it is further generally recognized that importers and exporters are required to prepare numerous and varied documents to meet governmental and commercial requirements both in the United States and abroad;

WHEREAS, the preparation of these documents is costly to shippers, consignees and vessels;

WHEREAS, it appears that many of these documents could be dispensed with, or consolidated with others and yet provide such data as may be necessary for governmental and commercial use;

WHEREAS, the government and private business represented by the Department of Transportation and the National Committee on International Trade Documentation, respectively, are actively and jointly progressing specific projects toward document elimination and simplification; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the American Association of Port Authorities endorses the principle of documentary simplification for vessels and cargoes moving in the international trade; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Transportation and the Department of Homeland Security (Bureau of Customs and Border Protection) be informed of the Association's position in this regard.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that AAPA supports the concept of automating processes and not automating "forms" as well as the elimination of "documents," whether they be paper or electronically scanned paper documents, and it endorses the concept of utilizing existing cargo and vessel automation data sets to meet the requirements of said documents.
