

South Carolina State Ports Authority

Special Event: “Groundbreaking for New Terminal Unites Community” – This groundbreaking event for the Charleston port’s new 280-acre container terminal was held to bring together stakeholders involved in the permitting process and to spread the message that the port authority’s expansion is moving forward, reinforcing its value statewide as an economic engine, good neighbor and environmental steward.