Periodicals: “The Virginia Maritimer” – Winning the only Award of Excellence in AAPA’s highly competitive Periodicals classification, the Virginia Port Authority’s bimonthly magazine addresses local, national and international users of The Port of Virginia, as well as potential customers and the general public with maritime interests. The magazine’s goal is two-fold: To keep readers current on what is happening at the port and serve as a public relations piece to underscore the message that The Port of Virginia is a progressive seaport and a good place to do business. According to the port, the magazine’s printed and electronic circulation—which goes to readers in all 50 U.S. states and 53 foreign countries—increased 2 percent over the past year, with the “most notable” foreign readership increase occurring in India.
