

Port of LONG BEACH
The Green Port

Investing in Jobs, Investing in You

Investing in jobs

More Port jobs = more opportunities for my students.
I love math.

Libby Huff
Long Beach High School Economics Teacher

www.POLB.com

2nd Street and LaVerne

www.polb.com

Investing in you

El Puerto muestra un aumento en el índice de empleo.
Para nosotros, el índice son
los tacos de pescado.

Diana Tiznado
Propietaria del restaurante Las Islitas

7th and Magnolia; Pacific and PCH

www.polb.com

Cambodian ad

ការងារកំពង់ផែកាន់តែច្រើន
បង្កើតអ្វីមួយកាន់តែគួរឱ្យទាក់ទិត
ជាងការយឺតរបស់ខ្ញុំ...អតិថិជន។

Vannak Som
អ្នកវេទនាផែនដី

www.polb.com

Anaheim and Cherry

Investing in jobs

Port jobs: good for everyone.
Port jobs: good for everyone.
Port jobs: good for everyone.

Mark Hawkins Owner of InkPeace, an eco-friendly ink shop

www.POLB.com

710 Freeway, near Anaheim

www.polb.com

Yusuke Kamiya
Nana-La Clothing Boutique

The Port creating more jobs helps local businesses.

I like their style.

One in eight jobs in Long Beach is Port-related. As the Port of Long Beach creates more jobs, it improves the local economy. And not just those in international trade, but everyone including restaurant cooks, school teachers and clothing boutique owner Yusuke Kamiya. Thanks to the Port, his business is looking good, and so are the local shoppers.

Find out more at www.POLB.com

Port of
LONG BEACH
The Green Port

More Port jobs help local businesses.

www.POLB.com

Jonathan Selsick
Java Deli

