- About the Port of New Bedford
Our Harbor is the city's greatest natural resource, economically and historically. Find out what makes our Harbor so special and the City so remarkable. You'll see all the agencies that keep the Port and City running. Read about the EPA Clean up and how it might affect you.
- Commercial Fishing
From using our facilities to a complete directory of port services, find everything you need including permits, dockage rates, harbor map, wharves etc. We're proud of the role we play to support our fishing industry.
- Recreational Boating
Boaters are in for a treat with upgraded facilities and services. Find everything you need to navigate our waters from rental moorings to dinghy docks as well as a complete guide to visiting our Harbor.
- Ferries & Excursion Boats
Why deal with Cape traffic to get to Martha's Vineyard? We have ferry service to the Vineyard and Calfunk (with convenient parking). Staying local? Take a harbor tour or go sport fishing. Use our Guide to New Bedford to see what's happening.
- Harbor Development Commission
The HDC is the governing body for the Harbor and city-owned waterfront properties. Learn how the HDC works to upgrade Port resources, present the Port's status as America's #1 fishing port, and expand the local economy.
- Shipping
Shippers know the Port of New Bedford has easy access to global markets, world-class intermodal connections and distribution facilities. Learn about our Trade Street and Mezzan, direct shipping to Tunpan, Mexico.
- Cruise Lines
Passengers and Operators - find what you need to make your visit to the Port of New Bedford an unforgettable experience. Tourist information, city maps, attractions, cruise terminal services and more.
- Harbor Map & Brochure
If you are a recreational boater, download our new Harbor Brochure. You'll find everything you need to plan your trip and enjoy your stay, including a map out of mooring, festivals, downtown, and services.
