Two Key Opening Questions...

- What are the qualities of effective leaders?
- How would you rate your effectiveness as a leader?
First, The Bottom Line…

- Crisis, complexity and change are the “new normal”
- Traditional forms of managing may not be the most effective in every situation
- Relationships and influence distinguish leadership from management
- Authentic leadership is useful model to lead people through change and adversity
- Ports should take specific actions to build and support authentic leaders
Agenda

- Part 1: The Port Context and Challenges
- Part 2: Authentic Leadership & Influence
- Part 3: The Call to Action!
Port Operating Context

Ports are facing increasing challenges...
- Increasing globalization
- Advancing technology
- Chaos
- “Permanent White Water”
- Complexity
- Rate of change
- Specific industry challenges
Port Operating Context

“Recent research has predicted that the exponential pattern of current change is so steep that by the year 2025 we would be witnessing the equivalent of all the major milestones of the twentieth century (i.e. electricity, automobile, DNA structure described, nuclear energy, WWII, space travel, internet, human genome sequencing) in less than a week”

Leadership Challenge Domains

One researcher has categorized leadership challenges six ways:

- Activist challenge
- Development challenge
- Transition challenge
- Maintenance challenge
- Creative challenge
- Crisis challenge

Leadership Paradigm Shift

- Traditional forms of management:
  - Top down
  - Command and control
  - Detached from followers
  - Managers think, staff works
  - Formal authority and power
  - Fixed worldviews
  - Manager has all the answers

- Functioned well in a static, predictable environment
